BUS MINISTRY INFORMATION AND RULES

Our Sunday Bus Ministry exists to give children a way to get to church and worship God with us! We want to give anyone an opportunity to be a part of our church family at Bethel.

Our Sunday begins with Sunday School classes for each age group (4-6 years, 7-10 years, 11-12 years, 13-18 years). After classes finish, we gather for worship in the sanctuary. Before the preaching, children up to 7 years old head to their own Junior Church class. Ages 8 and up stay in the worship service.

Our prayer is, that by attending Bethel Baptist, your child will grow in their faith and walk with God!

Bus Schedule:

- Each week you will receive a reminder about the pickup time and who the driver will be that week.
- The bus will leave Bethel Baptist Church around 8:45 am
- Bus pick up is between 8:45 am and 9:15 am
- Sunday School is 9:30 am – 10:15 am
- Church service begins at 10:30 am to approximately 12 noon (depending on speaker/activities, etc.)
- Bus will leave Bethel Baptist Church around 12 noon to take riders home.

Bus Route Rules:

- Your child(ren) must be at least 5 years of age, fully potty trained and have a registration form signed by parent/guardian on file at the church.
- All riders must remain seated while the bus is in motion. (No standing or walking)
- All children are expected to obey the rules while riding on the bus to and from church.
- All children must follow classroom rules as well when at church.
- All children are always to treat the bus workers, adults at the church and each other with respect.
- All children must leave toys, games, and electronic equipment at home. Phones will be allowed if necessary but only to call home/parents.

Parents, please read and explain these rules to your child(ren).
